

ABOUT QUAIL

Quail Capital Corp was formed in 1999 by Jeff Rudin & Mohammed Ahsan in Burbank, California. The company's original charter was to syndicate equipment finance and leasing transactions for Lease Brokers throughout the United States. The company has unique relationships, developed over the past 35+ years, coupled with an expertise to analyze and develop financial packages that is second to none. We syndicate to banks, finance companies, leasing companies and asset based lenders capable of handling transactions ranging from $20.0k to $500MM. We strongly believe and have proven that syndication delivers the best possible funding match for our customers and vendors. To date, the company has syndicated more than $500 million in equipment financing. Over the past several years, the company has developed direct origination of equipment finance transactions and formalized its Consulting division.

Our Consulting group helps Vendors develop a comprehensive financing program for their customers. We are proud that companies such as Harman International, NEC Display, and Brother International have trusted us to develop and manage equipment financing programs to grow thier businesses while offering the best financing available.

The company has also expanded its syndications to commercial real estate, asset-based lending, SBA loan transactions, merchant cash advances and financial consulting.

Quail Capital Corp has several trade names including: Quail Financial Solutions, Quail Equipment Finance, Harman Equipment Finance, Quail Equipment Leasing, VPF Equipment Finance, Quail Leasing and Quail Financial. We take pride in a stellar reputation for Integrity with our Customers, Vendors and Lenders. We have a relentless desire to help our clients succeed while maintaining a long term focus on fairness. We take pride in taking the time to understand our clients often complex need for money in order to obtain the equipment that often makes the difference in their success. We facilitate their growth, lower operating costs or obtain a larger market share of their respective industries. We are proud that the vast majority of our customers keep coming back to us, that's the true gauge of the service and satisfaction we provide.

Most of all, we are proud of our incredible employees who share our passion for excellence and integrity in serving our clients.

QUAIL FINANCIAL SOLUTIONS

quailfinancialsolutions.com

2310 W Victory Blvd
Burbank, CA 91506

818-843-8686